

BRAINSTORMING PEOPLE WHO KNOW YOUR STRENGTHS

This checklist can help you brainstorm people in your life who know about your strengths and/or your efforts to care for your child. Check off any of the people on this list who you think might be willing to write a letter on or speak on your behalf in court. Add any additional people you can think of. Then work with your lawyer or advocate to make a plan for how these people may be able to help you
